Sharing young women's stories: Inspire, Action, Vision.

What is your story? What makes women beautiful? Who inspires you?

Young women – we've been called radicals, change agents, avant gardes, rebels and non conformists. Young women have always created conversations about societies' views of women and femininity. Today, body image is a top concern for young women. How does body image affect you? How can we change society's and media's representation of women?
